

MW G. SANTY LASCANO
GRAND MASTER 2010-2011
123 Alder St.
Everett, Washington 98203-3254
g.santy@comcast.net
www.freemason-wa.org

GRAND LODGE
FREE AND ACCEPTED MASONS
OF WASHINGTON

August 3, 2010

Memorandum for all Lodgers and members of the Grand Lodge of Washington

Subject: Lewis Awards

LEWIS AWARD

This award can be worn by Washington Masons but must be purchased through the Grand Lodge office. The membership of both Brothers will be verified through the Grand Lodge office. Here are the standards for the Lewis Award for Washington State Masons:

1. Only two names on the award-Father and Son
2. Initiated Date for both
3. Each bar will have the Full Name and Initiation date for each Mason
4. Both must be in Good Standing. If one of the brothers is deceased he must be in Good Standing at the time of his death.
5. Only the Son is authorized to wear the award in honor of his father, as the award was intended.

An Entered Apprentice Mason who meets the above criteria is authorized to order the Lewis Award through the Lodge Secretary.

The current cost of the award is $35.00 (which includes engraving on the front only) and $5.00 for shipping and handling for a total of $40.00 made payable to the Grand Lodge of Washington.

G. Santy Lascano
Grand Master